Dear Harold,

If you can celebrate the Russian Revolution a month early, I guess I can celebrate the Christmas season a bit late!

Actually, I decided not to try to send any cards until things settled down a bit, so here I am. I think the trouble is that November 22 comes too close to the end of the year.

I don't know why I accepted Noah Griffin's invitation to his KGO talk show last weekend, since I'm no longer a night person, but once I did I'm glad I stayed awake afterwards long enough to hear the first part of your appearance. Sounded just like the good old days.

We are all fine here; Beth is, it seems, practically grown up. We got a card from Gary Schoener, who is now married.

Thanks for all the stuff you've been sending. No major news to report at the moment; I'll write again after I get some work done on the next issue of EOC.

Best to all,

Paul
